Welcome, Friend, to Bristol Borough's First Fridays on the Delaware!

Founded in 1681, Bristol, Pennsylvania boasts a long and proud history. Located on the banks of the Delaware River, Bristol served an important role in both the Revolutionary and Civil wars. The old-world influence still exists today as evidenced by the architecture of historic mansions, the many antique shops and significant landmarks throughout the town. Bristol continues to demonstrate historic, art and cultural importance through its own professional theater, museum, art studios, walking tours and the now annual First Fridays on the Delaware celebrations.

Over the last three years, the Bristol Borough Business Association's First Friday events drew thousands of visitors of all ages to historic Bristol Borough. Family-oriented activities including live music, free entertainment, art displays, interactive stations, and browsing the many shops and vendor booths along our main business district were enjoyed by all.

Our amazing little town has been experiencing a significant revitalization over the last few years. New businesses, eateries, residences and the exciting new dock project are adding to Bristol's charm and appeal and have locals buzzing about us! Thanks to Deluxe Corporation and the Small Business Revolution, Bristol Borough has recently gained even more attention on a national level while competing for a $500,000 revitalization grant. As the 2017 Season 2 winner, our town was featured in an 8-show series on Hulu. Eight small businesses were chosen to receive professional support such as marketing assistance, business planning, financial counseling, and industry-specific guidance. As a result, all of Bristol Borough has seen an increase in tourism and commerce, and we are extremely grateful!

First Fridays on the Delaware are a wonderful way to introduce and highlight all that Bristol Borough has to offer with a widening audience. If you would like to be part of the excitement, please consider a sponsorship commitment this season. As a sponsor, your organization will receive special benefits while helping make this season of First Fridays on the Delaware even better than the last! Detailed sponsorship and support opportunities as well as deadlines are attached.

Thank you and we hope to see you on First Friday!

Sincerely,

The Bristol Borough First Fridays Committee
